Today's News of the Great Southwest

If You Need a Medicine, You Should Have the Best

Although there are hundreds of preparations advertised, there is only one that really stands out pre-eminent as a remedy for diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root stands the highest for the reason that it has proved to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of even the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound—a physician's prescription for a specific disease.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything.

A Small Certificate of Purity is with every bottle.

For sale at all drug stores, in bottles of two sizes—fifty-cents and one-dollar.

SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE BY MAIL.

In order to prove what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy will do for you, every reader of the El Paso Daily Herald who has not already tried it, may receive a

ENJOYABLE BALL

El Pasoans Visit Friends in the Valley—Alfalfa Is Being Loaded at Clint for the Market.

Clint, Tex., Feb. 15.—The Valentine Ball given at Schaller hall was a success, several persons from El Paso being present. The music was furnished by the San Elizario orchestra. Refreshments were served, and a good time reigning for those who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harvey and son, George, were pleasant visitors at the McKinney home. Mr. Harvey is city salesman for the H. Lesinsky Co., of El Paso, and did good work here in the interest of his firm.

C. N. Bassett was down at his ranch near this place and stopped off here to inspect the new store building being erected by his partner, C. M. McKinney.

Miss Critchett of El Paso, was recently visiting relatives in this section.

Mr. Mann and Mr. Wells have returned to their ranch after completing their residence at this place.

section country, are in town for a few days.

Ralph Baker, son of M. W. Baker, visited his father, returning to his home in El Paso.

C. D. Humble and son, Vernon, were among late El Paso visitors.

The Clint baseball team recently organized, is doing good work, and hopes to be able to meet some of the neighboring towns in a match game soon.

Marcelus Johnson and A. F. Celum are loading alfalfa here this week. El Paso, and did good work here in the interest of his firm.

C. M. McKinney & Co. are the buyers, and it being shipped to eastern Texas points.

MANY BOXES UNLOCKED IN ROSWELL POSTOFFICE.

Mayor of Carlsbad Is Democratic Candidate For Congress—Roswell News.

Roswell, N. M., Feb. 15.—If the people are too lazy to lock up the combination boxes in the postoffice, said night chief of police Tobie Stewart, "they ought to be robbed."

There are 600 combination boxes in the postoffice and at 2:30 in the morning policeman Stewart found 169 boxes unlocked.

Judge James M. Dye, mayor of Carlsbad, does not deny that he is a candidate for the nomination on the democratic ticket as delegate to congress.

At a meeting in the city hall the son's of Confederate Veterans elected officers for the coming year. M. U. Finley was unanimously elected president, to succeed himself; captain Benjamin F. Harlow, adjutant secretary and treasurer. Robert T. McClung, color bearer and historian; Dr. Yater, surgeon; M. H. Brasher, chaplain.

It was decided to have a meeting Feb. 25.

The appointment of Louis O. Fuller to succeed James M. Dye, as president of the fifth judicial district meets with approval by the citizens of this city. Hervey held the position for five years prior to his being appointed attorney general of New Mexico.

Miss Fells Hilt and her friend Miss Stoll of Lexington, Kentucky, visited Roswell and attended the dance given in honor of C. N. Helton of San Antonio.

Capt. J. F. Fullerton has returned from San Diego, California.

Attorney H. M. Dougherty was in El Paso lately.

J. O. Fulgham has returned from his ranch near Rosedale.

John Martin, territorial cattle inspector and Dr. F. L. Snyder, government veterinarian have been inspecting cattle in this vicinity.

MARATHON PEOPLE PLAN TO PLANT GRAYLE

Marathon, Tex., Feb. 15.—People of Marathon are beginning to experiment with the grayle plant because of the activity of the rubber factory situated here.

They have ascertained from seed catalogs that one acre of land with rows three feet apart and with plants one foot apart in the row contains about 14,000 plants.

The plant is a native of this country and with the present price at $25 a ton many people in this section who have not grayle on their property are preparing to plant it.

FARMERS ORGANIZE FT. SUMNER SOCIETY

Will Aid Dry Farm Development—Name of Postoffice Changed.

Fort Sumner, N. M., Feb. 15.—The Fort Sumner Valley Farmers' Society and Institute was organized here recently to cooperate with the Santa Fe in its dry farm development work. The officers are: P. G. Allred, president; H. C. Henry, vice president; K. C. Nisbet, secretary; J. H. Keeling, treasurer; L. D. Beckwith, librarian. George Yockey and J. W. Hadsall together with the first four officers constitute the executive committee.

The name of the Sunnyside postoffice has been changed to Fort Sumner.
This ends the contest between the patented and the unpatented parts of the town over the name. Fort Sumner already had the railroad, telephone and telegraph names. There is no change in the postoffice force.

Work has begun on the Dr. Lovelace business building block. It is to be of native red stone.

Plans are on foot for setting nearly 1000 acres of orchard this spring.

There has been unusual activity in township circles the past few weeks. E. L. Bernard, for years a private secretary in the McCormick family, and at one time owner and editor of Opportunities of Today, has been placed in charge of the township development.

The rules and regulations governing the use of water under the canal are now being printed. They follow closely the standard set by larger vendors of water.

The site for the mission style company office is being decided upon.

J. W. Hadsall and son, of Rockford, Ill. have located here.

G. M. Shlessinger and son, of Denver, are among the new settlers.

Warren Brown and son and their families have unloaded their car and have settled upon their land under the canal.

ALAMO NOMINATES CITY TICKET

Judge Byron Sherry, Aged 75, Selected for Office of Mayor.

Alamogordo, N. M., Feb. 15.—The citizens' mass meeting last night nominated a full ticket for the coming city election February 25. Judge Byron Sherry was nominated for mayor by acclamation. Four candidates for trustees were nominated, as follows: Geo.
C. Scipio, J. J. Hill, Henry S. Evans and W. G. Roe. Chas. E. Thomas was nominated city clerk. The nomination of judge Sherry meets with general approval. He is 75 years of age and one of the leading lawyers of the southwest. He served on the bench in Kansas some years ago. He was a general in the Union army and has been very active and prominent in politics and in public life all his life.

With the exception of mayor and clerk a second ticket for trustees may be put out. This will be Alamogordo's first election as an incorporated town.

izer of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, is here.

Miss Samary Exzell, stenographer for J. M. Pardue, left today for several weeks' stay in Malaga, N. M.

ANOTHER RAILROAD PROJECTED FROM CARLSBAD; OUTLET FOR EL PASO

Carlsbad, N. M., Feb. 15.—Rumor is current here that a company is being organized, composed of local capitalists, for the purpose of constructing a railroad from Carlsbad to the plains country east of here, taking in the already well established towns of Knowles, Monument, Lovington, and others, with the probable terminus at some convenient and active business center on the Oklahoma state line.

The section of country thus traversed would be the center of the cattle grazing country in eastern Eddy county and also the richest farming section in the Panhandle country. This same section already has some four or six prospective surveys made for similar roads seeking an eastern connection for El Paso with Kansas City, Oklahoma or St. Louis.

TUCUMCARIANS TO PLANT TREES

City Authorities Donate the Trees to Citizens—To Let Jail Contract.

Tucuman, N. M., Feb. 15.—The agitation of tree planting has been renewed this winter with much vigor and the progressive citizens have been urging the mayor and city council to set aside a tree planting week early in March, but instead of this, the city authorities have decided to donate trees free of charge to all persons who will plant them in front of their residences and see that they are watered and cared for.

An arrangement has been made to procure several thousand young cottonwood trees for the city to be planted during the next month or two. The trees are to be delivered not later than March 15, and that day has been suggested as "tree planting day" for the city.

The board of county commissioners met in extra session this morning to let a contract for the new county jail which is to be erected soon. There are a number of bids to be gone over and considered and the contract will probably not be let until tomorrow. District attorney E. R. Wright, of Santa Rosa, is here meeting with the board and doing its legal advisory work.

The Baptist Young People's union gave a Valentine social Monday evening at the church.

W. F. Buchanan, president of the First National bank, who has been in Washington, D. C. for the past month, has returned.

Attorney Henry M. Swan, who recently located here, has gone to his old home in Kansas to attend a session of the district court.

J. W. Hoban, who has been visiting friends in El Paso for a week, has returned.

nary hearing before Judge W. H. Pope day of W. T. Wells, attorney J. B.
Eldridge, of Boise, Idaho, and James Walker, on a charge of subornation of perjury, wherein it was alleged that they conspired in suborning James Day, who testified in behalf of Wells, who was tried and acquitted last July on a charge of murdering Ollie Shirley, was continued until Monday next. Eldridge will return from Boise at once to face the charge.

ALPINE NOMINATES CITY OFFICERS

S. A. Starr Named for Mayor Town to Have Five Aldermen.

Alpine, Tex., Feb. 15.—An enthusiastic meeting was held at the courthouse in Alpine for the purpose of nominating officers for the city election to be held February 21. A large number of citizens were present and after some very spirited arguments, the following were nominated by acclamation:

For mayor, S. A. Starr; aldermen, W.
A. Weakley, H. P. Phillips, P. J. Vogt, John Young and F. E. Gillett; city marshal, R. D. Shields. This practically insures the election of each of these men as there will not likely be other candidates.

Ed Dodson and mother have gone to Big Springs, where they will join Miss Clemmie Dodson, who recently purchased a newspaper at that place.

itor in Alpine lately.

NEW MEXICANS MEET TO DISCUSS GOOD ROADS.

Construction Under Way of Road From Roswell to Carlsbad—Carlsbad News.

Carlsbad, N. M., Feb. 15.—The good roads convention met at Lincoln recently and was attended by delegates from nearly every precinct in the county. The chief topic discussed was the completion of the Roswell-Carlsbad road, which is now under construction. The following were the delegates in attendance from Carlsbad:

George Ulrick, William Doering, Wm.
Thornberry, Frank Phillips, R. W.
Wm. Riley, Tom Johnson, Jno. A. Hayley, Dr. F. L. Randles, Jake Bell, N. M.
Schoegins and Lee B. Chase.

a new town has been started.

RANGE REPORTED POOR IN MONTEREY DISTRICT

Cattlemen Say They Stand Little Chance of Saving Cattle Unless They Get Rain Soon.

Monterey, N. M., Feb. 15.—The range is getting poor in this community.
Cattlemen say if they don't get some rain in the next few days, they stand a very poor chance of saving very many cattle this spring.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Lou Gaslin, is no better. Their little son is now suffering from a severe cold and fever.

Mr. Wetmore has returned from Carlsbad.
